

David Murfin is president of Murfin Drilling Company, Inc. (ranked number one in oil production in Kansas for 2008 and 2009) which dates back to 1926. He is also Chairman and CEO of Murfin, Inc. both based in Wichita with many diverse business operations. He was Co-CEO of the co-registrant for the IPO of NYSE listed MV Oil Trust (MVO). He graduated from Kansas University in 1975 with bachelor's degrees in mechanical engineering and business and served as President of Student Union Activities (SUA). Murfin currently serves on the National Petroleum Council, is Chairman of the National Stripper Well Association, Chairman of the Kansas Chamber, a member of the Board of Directors of Goodwill Industries of Kansas, Inc. He was a founding member of American State Bancshares, Inc., and has served on their Board of Directors.

Murfin is a member of the Kansas University School of Business Board of Advisors as well as a Trustee for the Kansas University Endowment Board. He is former President of the Kansas Independent Oil and Gas Association and Chairman of the National Liaison Committee of Cooperating Oil and Gas Associations. He was a founding member of the Kansas Heart Hospital and served on their Board of Directors.